Good game.

The killing spree soundtracks are the best.. its like the 90's theme songs of videogames. i feel every game should have an overall theme or melody but none are just this AWESOME. Had violins and orchestral scores.

Actually buy the soundtrack right now. it is good.

It's 3 Euros!! Buy it now!!

The music of this game is just awesome, amazing, fun and funny! I would like to note that I do NOT own Starstorm (yet!) and I did get all the new music and themes for the Starstorm nauts. Also, do not look at the tracklist shown at this page cause that is like 1/3 of what this soundtrack is. Basically you get every piece of music that this game has to offer and it updates regularly when new content is released.

Also Ayla's theme is my ringtone.

10/10 Would have weird looks at me in a bus again when my phone rings.. I would pay \u00a32 for one of these songs, let alone all of them.

10/10 would use Ayla's killing spree theme as a ringtone again.. BELLY IS GOING TO GET YOU!!!. It's 3 dollars and you get the full soundtrack, updated with each new release. There is so much music here that you're bound to find something you like (and since you own the game you know exactly what you're getting into). A must have and exemplar of how game soundtracks should be done, as most companies do not release updated soundtracks for post-release content (let alone for free).. OH YES YES YES OH GODS YES!! I'm gonna break the cardinal rule here and score a solid 10/10

The Music of Awesomenauts has always been one of the best parts of the game in In My Glorious Opinion. This gives you all the character themes, the stage themes, the killing spree themes and some bonus themes.

*If you like the Awesomenauts music. BUY THIS. If you don't like the music of awesomenauts well you probably aren't even on this page much less reading this review so to you who are not ever going to see this I will just say:
SpankthecheesewithOstrichfeathers*

Seriously. I honestly cannot find any fault with this. All the music I like in the game in a form I can use as my ringtone. The tracks are in both MP3 Good waulity and in FLAC which is a heavier though more accurate compression formate. I.e It's mostly Lossless from what I have heard.

Oh as a note. The rule of thumb is as new content is added the soundtrack is automatically updated so it may klikey contain more tracks than actually listed in the store page. The Devs, seem to be just a little slow in updating that por perhaps it gets lost in the to-dio-list of all the other content additions.

. \u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665\u2665s for your ears. Awesome :D)
